GAME PREVIEW

Rhode Island FC will close out its 2026 regular-season home slate at Centreville Bank Stadium on Saturday, taking on Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC in a rematch of the 2025 Eastern Conference Final for Fan Appreciation Night. With its third-straight appearance in the USL Championship playoffs secured in Wednesday's 1-0 win vs. Loudoun United FC, a chance for the first home playoff game in club history remains at stake with two regular-season home games remaining. With both Pittsburgh and RIFC boasting a 12W-11L-5T record on 41 points, and Pittsburgh sitting above RIFC in fourth place due to the league's tiebreaker rules, as result on Saturday is crucial to jump The 'Hounds in pursuit of a top-four spot.

Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC will return to the USL playoffs for the ninth-straight season in 2026, maintaining the second-longest active postseason streak in the USL Championship after clinching its spot with a 2-1 win over Hartford Athletic. Pittsburgh currently sits in the final home playoff spot in the Eastern Conference standings, just above RIFC due to the league's tiebreaker rules. The Riverhounds have had success from that position, securing its first-ever USL Championship title as the fourth seed in a penalty-shootout win at FC Tulsa in 2025. Pittsburgh defeated RIFC in the 2025 Eastern Conference Final en route to that victory, ending RIFC's season in a tight 1-0 battle. Since Aug. 1, Pittsburgh has allowed just eight goals in 11 games, keeping five of its nine total clean sheets and re-enforcing its position as one of the strongest defensive sides in the USL Championship.

TECHNICAL STAFF

KHANO SMITH

HEAD COACH & GENERAL MANAGER

Khano Smith was named the first Head Coach and General Manager of Rhode Island FC on March 8, 2023. Smith joined Rhode Island FC after serving four years as the first-assistant coach at Birmingham Legion FC. Before his time in Birmingham, Smith was an assistant coach for Orlando Pride of the National Women's Soccer League for three years.

Playing career

Smith started his transition from player to coach in 2015 as an assistant coach at Southern New Hampshire University. Smith brings extensive experience to the club, including an 11-year professional career playing for seven professional teams across four leagues: Carolina Dynamo, Bermuda Hogges, Real Boston Rams (USL Premier Development League), Dandy Town Hornets F.C. (Bermudian Premier Division), New England Revolution, New York Red Bulls (Major League Soccer) and Lincoln City F.C. (EFL League Two). At the international level, Smith captained the Bermuda National Team and appeared in 32 games, including 13 CONCACAF World Cup qualifiers. He tallied 10 goals across his national team career with the Gombey Warriors.

Coaching Beginnings

In December 2022, Smith was part of the sixth graduating class to complete the U.S. Soccer Federation (USSF) Pro License, finishing a 12-month journey that began in December 2021. Joining an elite group of fewer than 75 coaches to have completed the highest-level coaching license in the Confederation of North, Central America and Caribbean Association Football (CONCACAF), Smith became the first Bermudian coach to earn the prestigious accreditation. Leading all soccer operations for Rhode Island FC, Smith has assembled a deep and talented roster, and an experienced coaching staff with high standards and expectations for the 2026 USL Championship season after leading the club to back-to-back Eastern Conference Finals in its first two seasons.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR

FIGHTING FOR MORE

Rhode Island FC has officially booked its third-straight trip to the USL Championship playoffs with a 1-0 home win against Loudoun United FC on Wednesday night. The tight victory saw RIFC officially clinch the playoffs earlier than it ever has before, and marked the first time the club has clinched at home. RIFC has the chance to chase more history beginning on Saturday, as the squad is still in contention for its first-ever home playoff game. Standing in the way of that berth are its final two regular-season opponents: Pittsburgh, who holds the tie-breaker over the Ocean State Club, and Hartford Athletic, who sits at 40 points. A win at home against Pittsburgh is critical in bringing the RIFC faithful back to Centreville Bank Stadium for a playoff matchup, and would set the stage for a decisive season finale at Hartford Athletic on Oct. 24.

FINISH WITH A BANG

RIFC's critical matchup with Pittsburgh marks the club's final regular-season game at Centreville Bank Stadium, where it will celebrate its third-annual Fan Appreciation Night. The Ocean State club has played exceptionally well in front of its home supporters this season, losing just two games across all competitions at Centreville Bank Stadium in 2026. Historically, RIFC's dominance in its home stadium has been particularly strong on Fan Appreciation Night. In each of the last two seasons, Rhode Island FC has earned its largest win of the season in its final home matchup, blanking the Tampa Bay Rowdies 5-0 on Oct. 11, 2025 and pummelling Miami FC 8-1 in its largest win in club history on Oct. 26, 2024. The Ocean State club will need to capture that scoring magic to push past a potent Pittsburgh side on Saturday.

FOR THE RECORDBOOKS

For a matchup with strong playoff implications, RIFC has a plethora of history to draw back on against Pittsburgh. Despite Pittsburgh holding the advantage in the all time series over RIFC (4W-2L-1T), Rhode Island has taken some critical victories against the 'Hounds. Most recently, the Ocean State club got its revenge after a 2025 Eastern Conference Final defeat, earning its first-ever regular season win against Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC on July 25. In a classic tight, gritty battle between the two clubs, RIFC took the lead on a late-game header before holding Pittsburgh at bay in the ensuing scramble. With Pittsburgh proving a strong defensive side, another close, tooth-and-nail contest may be on the docket for these two clubs.

ABOUT RHODE ISLAND FC

Our purpose is to build A Club for All Rhode Island. Everything we do on and off the pitch is focused on this North Star. It is part of our culture, our language and our values. It is the inspiration for us to play a meaningful and impactful role in the community. It is the motivation for us to compete, win and raise trophies. It is the reason we built the award-winning Centreville Bank Stadium on the riverfront in downtown Pawtucket – a place to gather as a community and create lifelong memories.

We want to be one of the most respected soccer clubs in North America and the flagship venue for sports and entertainment in Rhode Island. We know that when we wear the crest across our hearts, we represent more than the club. We play for the people and place we call home. It is why, we will always be:

GROUNDED
We are who we are. No apologies.

INDEPENDENT
Founded by an iconoclast, we were the first colony to break from tyranny. A defiant giant stands atop our state house as a reminder of hope and independence. We have never cared what others thought, and we are not about to start.

FOR ALL
The country's first synagogue. The first African American pro soccer players in the Watson Brothers. Immigrants from every corner of the globe stand tall within our borders. All are welcome in our state and in our club.

PROUD
We are a small state surrounded by titans. So we learned long ago that if you can't stand taller, stand together.

SALTY
What did you expect of the Ocean State? We've got an attitude and we are happy to share it with you – be it a raised glass or raised voice.

MEET CHIP

Not your ordinary harbor seal.

Name: Chip (because if you're THIS iconic, you deserve to be in the celebrity single name club!)

Favorite Food: Fish & Chips; Quahogs (secret cravings for New York System wieners, ideally washed down with some coffee milk.)

Languages spoken: Bark, Snort and Grunt. Arf! Arf!

Personality: Energetic. Optimistic. Charismatic. And just a tad salty.

Favorite sport: Beach soccer.

Favorite "haul out": That's a toughie. The stadium on gameday, of course. But shaking flippers with fans in the community is pretty awesome, too. And you just can't beat the rocks and beaches in Rhode Island.

Favorite team: RIFCFAA (Rhode Island FC Forever And Always). Duh!

Unique Features: 13 whiskers (RI is the 13th state after all); anchor nose; RIFC seal spots (when you're a true fan, you go all out).

Lucky number: 401

CENTREVILLE BANK STADIUM

CENTREVILLE BANK STADIUM

On the banks of the Seekonk River, the Tidewater Landing development is a gamechanger for the city of Pawtucket and the state of Rhode Island. The multi-purpose, award-winning Centreville Bank Stadium is the anchor of the development, which will include housing, restaurants, retail stores and recreational amenities. Rhode Islanders and visitors can attend a soccer match or concert, enjoy the Riverwalk, grab a bite, or call Centreville Bank Stadium home. The world-class destination on Pawtucket's riverfront will support thousands of jobs and create millions of dollars of tax revenue.

The 10,500-seat stadium is the home pitch to Rhode Island FC. Centreville Bank Stadium is the flagship venue for sports and entertainment in Rhode Island, hosting other sporting and community events and concerts.

Centreville Bank Stadium and the Tidewater Landing development is the result of over three years of close collaboration between the state of Rhode Island, the Executive Office of Commerce, the Rhode Island House and Senate, the city of Pawtucket, the Pawtucket City Council and developer Fortuitous Partners.

The site has been vacant for nearly 50 years. After decades of industrial use dating back to 1881, the full project will be built in multiple phases on two sites totaling 25 acres on both sides of the Seekonk River.

The private investment in Tidewater Landing represents the largest investment of private capital in any development in Rhode Island in over a century.
